

BUILDING MORE THAN HOMES

Northwest Bank and Habitat for Humanity are creating stronger communities, together.

For over a decade, Northwest Bank has partnered with Habitat for Humanity to bring safe, stable and affordable housing to families across the communities we serve. Through hands-on volunteerism, financial support and deep-rooted partnerships, we're committed to building brighter futures, one home at a time.

PEOPLE-POWERED IMPACT SINCE 2021

More than 1,500 hours
of service

More than 100 employee volunteers

FINANCIAL COMMITMENT

$195,431
in direct donations

$805,000
in funding through the Neighborhood Assistance Program (NAP)

508
Habitat loans managed, totalling $21.6 million
in value

WHERE WE SHOW UP MOST

From cities to small towns, Northwest is showing up with time, tools and trust.

COLUMBUS, OHIO	Hours volunteered 380	Money donated $8,000+
MUNCIE, INDIANA	Hours volunteered 460	Money donated $37,000+
LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA	Hours volunteered 222	Money donated $37,000+

SERVICE BEYOND THE SITE

Northwest Bank supports Habitat beyond the build through:

Loan origination, underwriting
and servicing

Long-term mortgage management for Habitat homeowners

Board service and leadership engagement

Local chapter support and community collaboration

“Northwest Bank supports our Habitat homeownership mission both on and off our build sites, from rolling up their sleeves on a construction project and offering leadership through our board to serving our banking and mortgage needs. We know their team, and best of all, they really know us.”

Andrew Szalay, President & CEO, Lancaster Lebanon Habitat for Humanity

A LEGACY OF PARTNERSHIP

With a partnership that is over 13 years strong, Northwest's commitment to Habitat for Humanity continues to grow stronger with every project, every volunteer and every home.

Join us in building more than homes;
help us build stronger communities.

Member FDIC. Equal Housing Lender.